

2017 Scripps National Spelling Bee Bingo

Be sure to watch the Finals of the competition live on ESPN on Thursday, June 1st at 8:30pm.

a speller celebrates a correct spelling in a fun or unique way	a speller asks a root word question	the cameras show a speller's family celebrating in the audience	a speller successfully spells a word that they clearly did not recognize	a speller asks for the language of origin for their word a speller closes their eyes while spelling	a speller greets Dr. Bailly in a language other than English	a word has five or more syllables	a speller from your state/region spells correctly	a speller misspells by only one letter a speller uses the back of their placard to test out a spelling	a speller asks for the part of speech for their word	Free-Bee!	the ESPN commentators make a prediction about who will win	a speller gives their spelling without asking any questions about their word a speller asks for a funny sentence	a speller waits until the final 10 seconds to spell their word	ESPN shows a clip of a celebrity celebrating the Bee	a word is from German or has a German root	Dr. Bailly makes a speller laugh a speller from outside the United States spells a word correctly	a speller is given a word that you know how to spell	a speller asks for any alternate pronunciations	ESPN shows a clip featuring a speller's non-spelling talent or interest	a word is from French or has a French root

★ PRESENTED BY ★

2017 Scripps National Spelling Bee Bingo

Be sure to watch the Finals of the competition live on ESPN on Thursday, June 1st at 8:30pm.

the ESPN commentators make a prediction about who will win	a speller from your state/region spells correctly	a word is from French or has a French root	a speller gives their spelling without asking any questions about their word	a speller asks for the part of speech for their word a speller is given a word that you know how to spell	a speller successfully spells a word that they clearly did not recognize	ESPN shows a clip of a celebrity celebrating the Bee	a speller uses the back of their placard to test out a spelling	a speller waits until the final 10 seconds to spell their word
ESPN shows a clip featuring a speller's non-spelling talent or interest	a word is from German or has a German root	Free-Bee!	a speller asks for any alternate pronunciations	a speller celebrates a correct spelling in a fun or unique way a speller from outside the United States spells a word correctly	a speller closes their eyes while spelling	Dr. Bailly makes a speller laugh	a speller misspells by only one letter	a speller is wearing the same color as you a speller goes back and forth with the officials to clarify a pronunciation	a speller asks a root word question	the cameras show a speller's family celebrating in the audience	a speller asks for a funny sentence	a word has five or more syllables

★ PRESENTED BY ★

2017 Scripps National Spelling Bee Bingo

Be sure to watch the Finals of the competition live on ESPN on Thursday, June 1st at 8:30pm.

a speller is given a word that you know how to spell	ESPN shows a clip featuring a speller's non-spelling talent or interest	a word has five or more syllables	the cameras show a speller's family celebrating in the audience	a speller waits until the final 10 seconds to spell their word a speller from your state/region spells correctly	a speller asks for the part of speech for their word	a speller celebrates a correct spelling in a fun or unique way	a speller asks a root word question	a speller goes back and forth with the officials to clarify a pronunciation a speller misspells by only one letter	a word is from German or has a German root	Free-Bee!	a word is from French or has a French root	a speller is wearing the same color as you
Dr. Bailly makes a speller laugh	ESPN shows a clip of a celebrity celebrating the Bee	the ESPN commentators make a prediction about who will win	two spellers high-five each other after one successfully spells	a speller greets Dr. Bailly in a language other than English a speller closes their eyes while spelling	a speller asks for a funny sentence	a speller gives their spelling without asking any questions about their word	a speller uses the back of their placard to test out a spelling	a speller from outside the United States spells a word correctly

★ PRESENTED BY ★

2017 Scripps National Spelling Bee Bingo

Be sure to watch the Finals of the competition live on ESPN on Thursday, June 1st at 8:30pm.

a speller asks for the language of origin for their word	the ESPN commentators make a prediction about who will win	a speller misspells by only one letter	a speller asks a root word question	a speller asks for the part of speech for their word a speller is wearing the same color as you	a speller goes back and forth with the officials to clarify a pronunciation	two spellers high-five each other after one successfully spells	a speller gives their spelling without asking any questions about their word	a speller is given a word that you know how to spell a speller asks for a funny sentence	a speller asks for any alternate pronunciations	Free-Bee!	a word is from German or has a German root	ESPN shows a clip of a celebrity celebrating the Bee a speller closes their eyes while spelling	ESPN shows a clip featuring a speller's non-spelling talent or interest	a speller successfully spells a word that they clearly did not recognize	a word is from French or has a French root	a speller greets Dr. Bailly in a language other than English a speller waits until the final 10 seconds to spell their word	a speller celebrates a correct spelling in a fun or unique way	Dr. Bailly makes a speller laugh	a speller from your state/region spells correctly	a speller uses the back of their placard to test out a spelling

★ PRESENTED BY ★

2017 Scripps National Spelling Bee Bingo

Be sure to watch the Finals of the competition live on ESPN on Thursday, June 1st at 8:30pm.

a speller misspells by only one letter	the cameras show a speller's family celebrating in the audience	the ESPN commentators make a prediction about who will win	a speller asks for any alternate pronunciations	a speller asks a root word question a speller uses the back of their placard to test out a spelling	a speller asks for a funny sentence	a speller closes their eyes while spelling	a word has five or more syllables	ESPN shows a clip featuring a speller's non-spelling talent or interest a speller greets Dr. Bailly in a language other than English	a speller successfully spells a word that they clearly did not recognize	Free-Bee!	Dr. Bailly makes a speller laugh	a speller from outside the United States spells a word correctly a speller asks for the language of origin for their word	a speller goes back and forth with the officials to clarify a pronunciation	a speller is wearing the same color as you	a speller celebrates a correct spelling in a fun or unique way	ESPN shows a clip of a celebrity celebrating the Bee
a speller from your state/region spells correctly	a speller gives their spelling without asking any questions about their word	two spellers high-five each other after one successfully spells	a word is from German or has a German root	a speller is given a word that you know how to spell

★ PRESENTED BY ★

2017 Scripps National Spelling Bee Bingo

Be sure to watch the Finals of the competition live on ESPN on Thursday, June 1st at 8:30pm.

a speller waits until the final 10 seconds to spell their word	a speller greets Dr. Bailly in a language other than English	a speller is wearing the same color as you	a speller asks for any alternate pronunciations	the ESPN commentators make a prediction about who will win a speller is given a word that you know how to spell	a speller from your state/region spells correctly	a speller asks for a root word question	a speller asks for the language of origin for their word	a speller asks for the part of speech for their word a speller misspells by only one letter	a word is from German or has a German root	Free-Bee!	a speller closes their eyes while spelling	a speller goes back and forth with the officials to clarify a pronunciation
ESPN shows a clip of a celebrity celebrating the Bee	ESPN shows a clip featuring a speller's non-spelling talent or interest	a speller asks for a funny sentence	a word is from French or has a French root	a speller uses the back of their placard to test out a spelling a speller gives their spelling without asking any questions about their word	two spellers high-five each other after one successfully spells	the cameras show a speller's family celebrating in the audience	a speller from outside the United States spells a word correctly	Dr. Bailly makes a speller laugh

★ PRESENTED BY ★

2017 Scripps National Spelling Bee Bingo

Be sure to watch the Finals of the competition live on ESPN on Thursday, June 1st at 8:30pm.

a speller is given a word that you know how to spell	a word is from French or has a French root	a speller goes back and forth with the officials to clarify a pronunciation	a speller asks for the language of origin for their word	a speller asks for any alternate pronunciations a speller asks for a funny sentence	a speller from your state/region spells correctly	a speller waits until the final 10 seconds to spell their word	two spellers high-five each other after one successfully spells	a speller asks a root word question a speller celebrates a correct spelling in a fun or unique way	the cameras show a speller's family celebrating in the audience	Free-Bee!	ESPN shows a clip featuring a speller's non-spelling talent or interest	a word has five or more syllables a speller uses the back of their placard to test out a spelling	a speller closes their eyes while spelling	a speller asks for the part of speech for their word	a speller from outside the United States spells a word correctly	a speller greets Dr. Bailly in a language other than English a speller gives their spelling without asking any questions about their word	ESPN shows a clip of a celebrity celebrating the Bee	a word is from German or has a German root	a speller is wearing the same color as you	the ESPN commentators make a prediction about who will win

★ PRESENTED BY ★

2017 Scripps National Spelling Bee Bingo

Be sure to watch the Finals of the competition live on ESPN on Thursday, June 1st at 8:30pm.

a speller misspells by only one letter	the ESPN commentators make a prediction about who will win	a speller asks for any alternate pronunciations	a word has five or more syllables	a speller greets Dr. Bailly in a language other than English
a speller is given a word that you know how to spell	a word is from French or has a French root	a speller asks for the part of speech for their word	a speller closes their eyes while spelling	a speller asks for a funny sentence
a speller celebrates a correct spelling in a fun or unique way	a speller is wearing the same color as you	Free-Bee!	a speller gives their spelling without asking any questions about their word	a speller from your state/region spells correctly ESPN shows a clip of a celebrity celebrating the Bee	two spellers high-five each other after one successfully spells	ESPN shows a clip featuring a speller's non-spelling talent or interest	Dr. Bailly makes a speller laugh	a word is from German or has a German root a speller goes back and forth with the officials to clarify a pronunciation	a speller uses the back of their placard to test out a spelling	the cameras show a speller's family celebrating in the audience	a speller successfully spells a word that they clearly did not recognize	a speller asks a root word question

★ PRESENTED BY ★

